***PRESS RELEASE*****

The Frostburg City Police Department is investigating a hit & run incident in which a city lamppost, a bench, and multiple street signs were damaged along East Main Street.

On Wednesday, October 27, 2021, at 1:32 a.m., Frostburg City Police Officers responded to the 30-block of East Main Street for a report that an unknown vehicle struck and knocked over a lamp post, while also causing damage to a city bench, and street signs. The damage is estimated at approximately $5,000.

Officers were unable to locate the suspect vehicle but located a headlight assembly that had been knocked out of the suspect's truck. The headlight assembly is from a 2007-2013 Chevrolet truck.

Anyone with information is asked to call police at 301-689-3000 or to contact Allegany-Mineral County Crime Solvers at 301-722-4300 or by visiting: www.allegany-mineralcountycrimesolvers.com.
